SCHEDULING ORDER

1. Introduction: Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b), a telephonic scheduling conference was held in this case on September 23, 2022.
2. Jurisdiction: In this case, the subject matter jurisdiction of the Court has been invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and is not in dispute.
3. Consent to a Magistrate Judge: The parties do not consent that all proceedings in this case may be conducted by a United States Magistrate Judge in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).
4. Settlement / Alternative Dispute Resolution: The parties shall discuss the possibility of utilizing the Federal Court Mediation Program in this case. If the parties believe the Federal Court Mediation Program can aid in resolving the case, information is available on the Court's website and can be requested in writing from the Division Manager, U.S. District Court, 900 Georgia Avenue, Room 309, Chattanooga, Tennessee 37402.
5. Disclosure and Discovery:
 - (a) Discovery Plan: The parties have held a discovery planning meeting and submitted a discovery plan as required by Rule 26(f).
 - (b) Initial Disclosures: The parties have made all disclosures required by Rule 26(a)(1).
 - (c) Expert Testimony: Plaintiff shall disclose any expert testimony in accordance with Rule 26(a)(2) on or before August 29, 2023. Defendant shall disclose any expert testimony in accordance with Rule 26(a)(2) on or before September 26, 2023. The parties shall disclose rebuttal testimony within thirty days after the other party's disclosure.

See Section 6(c), below, regarding expert-related motions.

(d) Final Witness List: On or before October 10, 2023, the parties shall provide to all other parties and file with the court a final witness list in accordance with Rule 26(a)(3)(A)(i). Within five days after service, the final witness list may be supplemented. After that time the list may be supplemented with leave of the Court and for good cause.

(e) All Discovery: Discovery for this matter is initially stayed pending resolution of any qualified immunity claims. If Plaintiffs determine that discovery is needed to respond to Defendants' assertions of qualified immunity (addressed in Section 6(b)(i) below), they shall move for limited discovery within fourteen (14) days after Defendants' motions for summary judgment are filed. Plaintiffs' motion(s) for discovery shall explain, in detail, what information is needed to adequately respond to the qualified immunity issues presented.

- i. After the issue of qualified immunity is resolved by the Court, all remaining discovery—including the taking of depositions, requests for admissions, and all discovery-related motion practice—shall be completed by November 7, 2023. After that date, the parties may conduct discovery by agreement, but the Court will not involve itself in any disputes that may arise.

(f) Pretrial Disclosures: On or before January 30, 2024, the parties shall make the pretrial disclosures specified in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3)(A)(ii) and (iii). All deposition testimony to be offered into evidence must be disclosed to all other parties on or before this date.

6. Other Scheduling Matters:

(a) Amendment of Pleadings: If any party wishes to join one or more additional parties or amend its pleadings, a motion for joinder or for leave to amend shall be filed on or before August 29, 2023.

(b) Dispositive Motions:

- i. At the scheduling conference, Defendants asserted that they plan to file motions for summary judgment on the issue of qualified immunity. Defendants shall file these motions no later than November 30, 2022.
- ii. After disposition of Defendants' motions related to qualified immunity, any dispositive motions under Rule 12 and motions for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 that remain shall be filed no later than December 5, 2023. The failure to timely file such motions will be grounds to summarily deny them. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the dispositive motion deadline will not be extended.

Judge Atchley prefers not to receive statements of undisputed material facts and will disregard any such statement unless it is (i) jointly filed, (ii) contains no argument, and (iii) sets forth facts rather than the parties' positions. If a "response" is filed, the Court will construe the statement as not jointly filed and disregard it.

- (c) Daubert Motions: All motions to exclude expert testimony pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 702 should be filed as soon as possible but no later than December 5, 2023.
- (d) Motions in Limine: Any motions in limine must be filed no later than February 6, 2024. The Court will not entertain a motion to exclude expert testimony styled as a motion in limine. Any motions to exclude expert testimony pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 702 must be filed on or before the Daubert motion deadline set forth in Section 6(c).
- (e) Special Requests to Instruct for Jury Trial: Pursuant to Local Rule 51.1, the parties shall confer and submit a single joint proposal for jury instructions to the Court no later than February 27, 2024. Before submitting the joint proposal, the parties must attempt to resolve any disagreements. To the extent there are disagreements as to specific instructions that cannot be resolved, the parties should provide competing instructions in their joint proposal. All jury instructions in the joint proposal, including agreed and competing instructions, shall be supported by citation to authority pursuant to Local Rule 7.4. A copy of the proposed jury instructions must be sent as a Microsoft Word document to atchley_chambers@tned.uscourts.gov.

The Court uses the Sixth Circuit Criminal Pattern Jury Instructions as its model in formulating the final instructions given to the jury. Proposed jury instructions should follow the form of the pattern instructions.

7. Final Pretrial Conference: A final pretrial conference will be held in Courtroom 1A on March 4, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. ET at the U.S. Courthouse, 900 Georgia Avenue, Chattanooga, Tennessee. All lawyers who plan to participate in the trial must be present in person at the final pretrial conference.

- (a) Final Pretrial Order: The parties shall submit a final pretrial order to the Court at least five business days prior to the final pretrial conference by sending it to atchley_chambers@tned.uscourts.gov. A sample copy of the final pretrial order is located on the Court's website at <http://www.tned.uscourts.gov>.
- (b) Trial Briefs: Any trial briefs regarding anticipated evidentiary and legal issues must be filed at least three business days before the final pretrial conference.
- (c) Exhibits: Prior to the final pretrial conference, the parties shall meet and confer regarding the authenticity and admissibility of all exhibits they intend to use at trial. At least five business days prior to the final pretrial conference, the parties must file an exhibit list with exhibits pre-marked for identification purposes.

Counsel should be prepared to discuss any objections to a party's exhibit list at the final pretrial conference.

(d) Courtroom Technology: On or before March 4, 2024, the parties shall disclose to one another and to the Court the technology they intend to use in the courtroom during trial and how they intend to use it (e.g. display equipment, data storage, retrieval, or presentation devices). This disclosure shall list (1) equipment they intend to bring into the courtroom and (2) Court-supplied equipment they intend to use. The parties shall confirm the compatibility and viability of their planned use of technology with the Court's equipment. General information regarding equipment supplied by the Court is available on the Court's website; specific questions should be directed to courtroom deputy Allison Laster at allison_laster@tned.uscourts.gov.

8. Trial: The trial of this case will be held in Chattanooga, Tennessee, before the United States District Judge and a jury beginning on March 19, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. ET. The trial is expected to last five to seven days. If this case is not heard immediately, it will be held in line until the following day or anytime during the week of the scheduled trial date.

SHOULD THE SCHEDULED TRIAL DATE CHANGE FOR ANY REASON, THE OTHER DATES CONTAINED IN THIS ORDER SHALL REMAIN AS SCHEDULED. ANY FURTHER MODIFICATION OF THE DATES HEREIN MUST BE SOUGHT BY A MOTION TO MODIFY THOSE DATES/ DEADLINES.¹

SO ORDERED.

CHARLES E. ATCHLEY, JR.
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

¹ Due to the demands of the Court's docket, all civil trials and pretrial hearings are conducted in Chattanooga, Tennessee. The Court will entertain a motion to conduct trial in another division of this Court upon a showing of good cause by the parties. Any such motions must be filed after the dispositive motions deadline but no later than four weeks before the final pretrial conference, and the grant or denial of the same rests in the Court's discretion.
